

Kenedy Bluebonnet Days 2010

First Weekend in May

Dear Vendor/Exhibitor:

The annual Kenedy Bluebonnet Days festival is scheduled for May 1, 2010. We do have several events already planned for this year's Bluebonnet Days at Joe Gulley Park in Kenedy, located one block off Hwy 181 and Hwy 72. This festival traditionally draws a crowd of approximately 5,000 people from Karnes County and the surrounding areas. Entertainment and activities will be at the park prior to the Parade and will continue throughout the day.

Saturday morning at 8 a.m., please check in at the Chamber booth in front of the pavillion and receive your booth assignment, at that time the arts & crafts, food, commercial vendors and exhibitors may start setting up their booths. (Please note, no vehicles will be allowed to pull up on the grass to unload.) All booths must be set up and ready to open by 10 a.m. No multiple food items allowed, the Chamber will attempt to have food booths offering different food items. NO SOFT DRINKS, OR ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES SOLD BY VENDORS.

All vendors/exhibitors provide their own booths. The rental fee for a 10' x 10' space is $45.00 for vendors and $25 for exhibitors. (Vendors are those who are selling items, whether goods, services, games, etc. Exhibitors are those providing information ONLY, i.e., NO SALES of any kind.) Vendors may rent two spaces for $80 (a savings of $10, and exhibitors two spaces for $40. (a savings of $10.) If you need electricity, please indicate this on your registration form. An additional fee of $5.00 for each plug is charged for this service. Each vendor/exhibitor is responsible for overseeing your booth throughout the festival day, from set-up to 11:00 p.m. The festival hours have been extended due to having the band, High Speed Hayride, as our entertainment from 7:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. Vendors are encouraged to stay for the evening, but not required to stay pasy 6:00 p.m. The booth fee is non-refundable after April 16, 2009
